Be a Good Soul and Donate Your Designer Soles and Threads to Charity

Leading Local Designer Consignment Company Offers Innovative New Way to Aid Valley Charities

(PHOENIX) – If you want to be a good soul and donate your gently used designer handbags, shoes and clothing to your favorite charity, now there's an easier way.

The Valley sisters behind My Sister's Closet, My Sister's Attic and Well Suited are excited to launch Project Charity, a great opportunity to raise money for your organization.

Project Charity allows non-profit groups to create an account at any 13 locations of Eco-Chic Consignments' three high-end designer consignment concepts -- My Sister's Closet (women), My Sister's Attic (home furnishings) and Well Suited (men) -- and ask for donations from their supporters without anyone having to reach into their pocketbooks.

Guests can then take their gently used apparel and home furnishings to any of the consignment locations. Eco Chic Consignments will apply any sales of those items to the specified organization's account.

Most recently, accounts have been set up to benefit the Phoenix Art Museum, Fresh Start, Arizona Humane Society, Rancho Coastal Humane Society, Friends of Animal Care & Control and Project Sarah in San Diego.

CEO and sister, Ann Siner said, "We recently mailed a $7,755.74 check to a local charity that encouraged their members to bring in clothing to My Sister's Closet. We love helping our community and plan to support our charities for years to come."

My Sister's Closet sells designer clothing, handbags, shoes, hats, jewelry and accessories. Items should be clean, pressed and generally look new. Clothing is accepted seasonally. And you don't need to make an appointment to drop-off!

Project Charity can even coordinate and handle the picking up of larger amounts of donations including furniture (such as an estate sale).

If you're interested in setting up an account, please email info@mysisterscloset.com or better yet, stop into any location and the store manager will personally assist you.
