

10.03.09

Sister's Attic opens next week

My Sister's Attic, an upscale consignment store selling home furnishings, will open at the Promenade at Fulton Ranch on Friday. The center is on the northeastern corner of Alma School and Chandler Heights roads.

My Sister's Attic is owned by Eco-Chic Consignments, which also owns My Sister's Closet, Well Suited (for men) and Small Change, a children's shop.

"People want to be able to purchase high-end, quality items on a low budget," Eco-Chic CEO Ann Siner said in a news release.

The Chandler shop will bring the number of stores in the chain to 11.

The company, founded in 1991, has seen more than a 20 percent increase in revenue from 2008, she said.

The $11 million company plans to expand existing stores in Scottsdale in 2010.